PUBLIC SPACES PROTECTION ORDER

www.oxford.gov.uk

Oxford City Council (the Council) in exercise of the power under section 59 of the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (the Act), being satisfied that the conditions set out in section 59 of the Act have been met, makes the following order:

Dogs on Leads

1. Any person in charge of a dog in a public place within the Restricted Area shall be in breach of this Order if they, at any time, on any land in the Restricted Area, does not comply with a direction given by a police officer or Authorised Person to put and keep the dog on a lead, unless:
  - a. the person has a reasonable excuse for failing to do so; or,
  - b. the owner, occupier or other person or authority having control of the relevant land has consented to them failing to do so.
2. For the purposes of this article an Authorised person of the Council may only give such a direction under this Order to put and keep a dog on a lead if such restraint is reasonably necessary to prevent a nuisance or behaviour by the dog likely to cause annoyance or disturbance to any other person, animal or bird.

Specified Number of Dogs

3. A person found to be in charge of more than four dogs at the same time whilst in a public place within the Restricted Area shall be in breach of this Order, unless:
  - a. the person has a reasonable excuse for doing so; or,
  - b. the owner, occupier or other person or authority having control of the relevant land has consented to them doing so.

Dog Fouling of Land

4. Any person in charge of a dog in a public place within the Restricted Area shall be in breach of this Order if he/she, at any time, fails to remove the faeces from the land forthwith, unless:
  - a. the person has a reasonable excuse for failing to do so; or,
  - b. the owner, occupier or other person or authority having control of the relevant land has consented to them failing to do so.

5. Placing the faeces in a receptacle on the land which is provided for the purpose, or for the disposal of waste, shall be sufficient removal from the land.
6. Being unaware of the defecation (whether by reason of not being in the vicinity or otherwise), or not having a device for or other suitable means of removing the faeces shall not be a reasonable excuse for failing to remove the faeces.

Exclusion from Children's Play Areas

7. A person in charge of a dog shall be in breach of this order if, at any time, they take the dog onto, permits the dog to enter or to remain on, any land within the restricted area specified in article 8 of the Order, unless:
  - a. the person has a reasonable excuse for failing to do so; or,
  - b. the owner, occupier or other person or authority having control of the relevant land has consented to them do so.
8. This article applies to all land in the Restricted Area comprising any fenced (and /or hedged and/or walled) children's play area signed at its entrance(s) as a 'dog exclusion area' (whether the sign uses those particular words or words and/or symbols having a like effect).

Obstruction of Authorised Person

9. Any person who attempts to obstruct an Authorised Person in carrying out their duties under this Public Spaces Protection Order shall commit an offence.
10. Obstruction includes, but is not limited to, giving false information, physically obstructing an Authorised Person, and refusing to comply with any reasonable instruction given to ensure compliance with this PSPO.

Definitions

11. The Authority means Oxford City Council (the Council).
12. Authorised Person means a police officer, an employee, agent, contractor of the Council or other person who is authorised in writing by the Council.
13. Person in charge means the person who has the dog in their possession, care or company at the time the relevant offence is committed, or, the person who habitually has the dog in their possession, care or company.

PART 4, SECTION 59

PUBLIC SPACES PROTECTION ORDER

CHALLENGING THE VALIDITY OF ORDERS

An interested person may apply to the High Court to question the validity of—

- a) This Order, or
- b) A future variation of this Order.

“Interested person” means an individual who lives in the restricted area or who regularly works in or visits that area.

An appeal against this Order or a future variation of this Order may be made to the High Court within six weeks from the date on which the order or variation is made, on the grounds that:

- a) Oxford City Council did not have power to make the order or variation, or to include particular prohibitions or requirements imposed by the order (or by the order as varied);
- b) a requirement under Chapter 2 of the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 was not complied with in relation to the order or variation.
