I have submitted the comments of the Friends of Old Headington under this reference. Your online form does not provide for the submission of graphics (see page 3, attached), which in this instance relates to our comments on the JR Hospital site and those parts of the Old Headington Conservation Area within the site.

I hope you can unite the map with the section that comments on it, in our second paragraph on SPE20, para 707 (highlight in red):

'The text reads as if the JR Hospital site is merely adjacent to the Old Headington Conservation Area. In fact, part of the site is actually within the Old Headington Conservation Area. The map below, adapted from the Old Headington Conservation Area Character Appraisal, uses green to show JR Hospital land within the Conservation Area. Policy SPE20 should explicitly recognise that.'

Many thanks,

Howard Stanbury

Secretary, Friends of Old Headington
